

Higher Courts - Caseload Trends

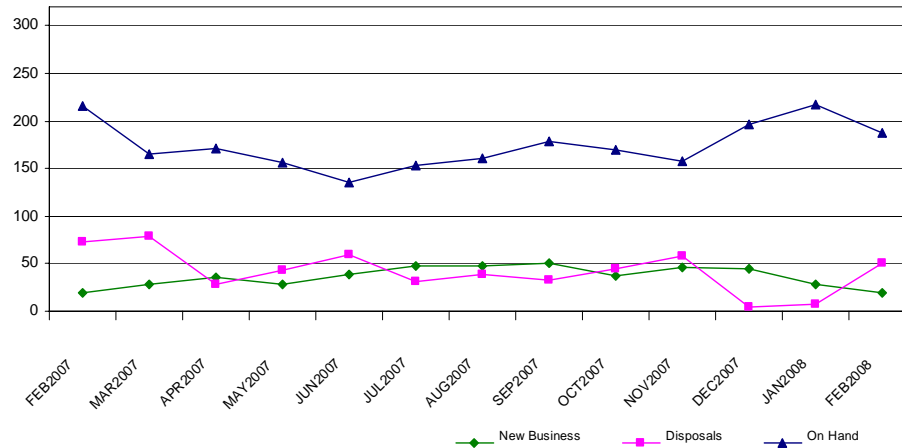

Court of Appeal – Civil Appeals

During February 16 civil appeals were filed, up four from the 12 filed in January.

The number of civil appeals on hand at the end of February was 232 – down three from 235 at the end of January. Of those 232 appeals, 103 were on the setting down list as at 29 February.

Court of Appeal – Criminal Appeals

During February 20 criminal appeals were filed, down nine from the 29 filed in January.

The number of appeals on hand decreased from 218 in January to 187 as at the end of February, which is 29 lower than the figure for the on hand balance at the same time last year of 216.