Minute: 17 June 2022

MINUTE (NO. 9) OF CHURCHMAN J
[Case Management Conferences 2021 – Wellington]

[1] This minute addresses only those matters where applicants have sought pre-trial directions ahead of the Wellington case management conferences (CMC) scheduled for Tuesday 28 June 2022. All other matters where no pre-hearing directions were sought will be dealt with on that date.

Applications to appear by VMR

[2] All applicants who have sought leave to appear by VMR have that leave granted. They should liaise with the Registrar to obtain login details.

CIV-2017-485-252

[3] The memorandum filed by Ms Edmonds confirmed that evidence gathering was well underway and that no directions was sought from the Court. This matter is adjourned until the 2023 Wellington CMC and counsel's attendance at the 2022 Wellington CMC is excused.

CIV-2017-485-232

[4] Counsel's request for leave to file an updating memorandum out of time is granted.

Other applications

[5] A number of applicants have failed to file any memorandum as previously directed by the Court. Counsel for such applicants (and applicants in person where they have not retained counsel) are required to be present in Court on 28 June to firstly, explain why they have not filed memoranda as directed, and secondly, to provide the Court with details as to their progress towards hearing.
