

IN THE SUPREME COURT OF NEW ZEALAND

I TE KŌTI MANA NUI

SC 31/2019
[2021] NZSC 1

BETWEEN	D (SC 31/2019) Applicant
AND	NEW ZEALAND POLICE Respondent

Court: Glazebrook, O'Regan and Ellen France JJ

Counsel: J D Munro and J N Olsen for Applicant
A M Powell and H M L Farquhar for Respondent

Judgment: 9 February 2021

JUDGMENT OF THE COURT

The judgment of this Court of 21 June 2019 ([2019] NZSC 58) is recalled and reissued with the applicant's name anonymised.

REASONS

[1] In this Court's judgment dealing with the applicant's substantive appeal, the Court determined that the judgments from both the substantive appeal and the application for leave should be anonymised.¹

[2] To give effect to that determination, we recall the judgment dealing with the application for leave and reissue it with the applicant's name anonymised.

Solicitors:
Tucker & Co, Auckland for Applicant
Crown Law Office, Wellington for Respondent

¹ D (SC 31/2019) v New Zealand Police [2021] NZSC 2 at [147] per Winkelmann CJ and O'Regan J, [267] and [314] per William Young J, [265] per Glazebrook J and [159] per Ellen France J.