Chief Justice announces the appointment of three acting judges

The Chief Justice is pleased to announce the appointment of three acting High Court judges. These appointments are made by the Governor-General acting on the advice of the Attorney-General.

The Hon Justice Christine Gordon has been appointed an acting Judge of the High Court from 22 February 2023 until 31 December 2024; the Hon Paul Davison has been appointed an acting Judge of the High Court from 2 February 2023 until 31 August 2023, and the Hon David Gendall has been appointed an acting Judge of the High Court from 1 February 2023 until 31 August 2023.

These appointments are made to enable the High Court to respond to the increased workload due to COVID-19 related disruptions.
