Chief Justice announces the appointment of three acting judges

The Chief Justice is pleased to announce the appointment of three acting judges. These appointments are made by the Governor-General acting on the advice of the Attorney-General.

The Hon Justice Helen Cull has been appointed an acting Judge of the High Court from 24 October 2023 until 31 December 2024, the Hon Justice Robert Osborne has been appointed an acting Judge of the High Court from 15 October 2023 until 31 December 2024, and the Hon Justice Simon Moore has been appointed an acting Judge of the High Court from 22 October 2023 until 31 December 2024.

These appointments are made to enable the High Court to respond to the increased workload due to COVID-19 related disruptions.
