JUDGMENT OF THE COURT

The applications for recall of this Court's judgments in
Smyth-Davoren v Parker [2019] NZSC 66 and in
Smyth-Davoren v Mountbatten [2019] NZSC 67 are dismissed.

REASONS

[1] Mr Smyth-Davoren has applied for reviews of this Court's judgments in Smyth-Davoren v Parker<sup>1</sup> and in Smyth-Davoren v Mountbatten<sup>2</sup> (the leave judgments). In these judgments the Court dismissed Mr Smyth-Davoren's applications for leave to appeal. We have treated the applications for review as applications to recall the leave judgments.

[2] Nothing has been put forward by Mr Smyth-Davoren which would warrant a recall of the leave judgments. At best, the matters raised by Mr Smyth-Davoren attempt to re-argue his applications for leave. The Court had considered the submissions that were made by Mr Smyth-Davoren in relation to those applications. There are no grounds to recall the leave judgments and the applications are therefore dismissed.

[3] We direct the Registrar to reject any further applications to review or recall the leave judgments.
