

Reopening of Wellington High Court building – 1 February 2017

The Wellington High Court building at 2 Molesworth St, Wellington will reopen on 1 February 2017.

The High Court building experienced water damage in the November 2016 earthquakes. Remedial work is close to completion and building will re-open on 1 February 2017.

The Law Society library will remain closed as further work is required.

The following arrangements will apply:

- Until 5pm Tuesday 31 January 2017, the High Court Registry will continue to operate from the 6th floor of the Wellington District Court (43-49 Ballance St). Lawyers or members of the public wanting to file documents can do so there. All other contact details for the High Court, telephone and email remain the same.
- From 1 February 2017, Judges of the Wellington High Court, their associates and clerks will recommence work at 2 Molesworth St.
- At 9am Wednesday 1 February 2017, the High Court Registry (and probate unit) will reopen at 2 Molesworth St.

Daily lists of fixtures and their locations continue to be published on the Courts of New Zealand website courtsfnz.govt.nz/going-to-court/calendar/daily-lists

Further information about the High Court building, opening hours and other details can be found at justice.govt.nz/contact-us/find-us/wellington-high-court

Hon Justice G J Venning
Chief High Court Judge – Te Kaiwhakawā Matua

25 January 2017